“The most enjoyable hour on the Fringe! You’ll wake up tomorrow with sore cheeks (the ones on your face, mainly!)” JASON MANFORD

“The slickest chaos and smartest stupidity that you will ever see.. liable to induce hysteria...”
RICHARD HERRING

The legendary double act The Raymond & Mister Timpkins Revue make their long-awaited Edinburgh Fringe debut with their show Ham after over 20 years of headlining on the UK comedy circuit. A prop & music driven double act, their comedic antics have taken them all over the country, winning legions of fans including Jason Manford, Richard Herring and David Walliams.

“Spectacularly funny” TIME OUT

Recently they have been part of The Comedians at the Kings project; a collection of the country’s most experienced headliners, assembled at The Kings Theatre in Glasgow and filmed for TV. They are also known from another act ripping their act off on last year’s Britain’s Got Talent for ITV – BGT judge David Walliams spotted the fraud & tweeted to his millions of followers that “Raymond & Mr Timpkins did it first and it was funnier”.

“Mad, anarchic triumph of stupidity over style.” THE GUARDIAN

Raymond and Mr Timpkins are an adopted nephew/uncle duo who until recently have happily shared a caravan in the small Cotswolds village of Mybermole. Raymond has adored Mr Timpkins and let him off numerous times for being a slight control freak ever since he rescued him many years ago from a band of travelling, maverick dry cleaners on the Newbury bypass. After a clash over who is to get the lead part in a local am-dram production of Celebrity Love Island – A Musical a furore ensues; a postie, a vicar and a church all meeting their premature ends on the bumpy road to their self-discovery.

“Joyous, pretty irresistible.” CHORTLE

The questions on everyone’s lips are...
Should Raymond stop murdering the irritating, the inconvenient and the rude?
Can the potential tedium of the daily grind help them to overcome their differences?
And lastly...might this be the end for the terpsichorean twosome?

“Absolutely hilarious” VIZ

Come and find out!?! Honestly do come! You should definitely come. There is nothing like this anywhere else in the world right now! See it before some other dirty scallywag tries to rip them off again!
